The Iraqi Cultural Center (ICC) and the
The American Academic Research Institute in Iraq (TAARII) present:

CONFERENCE:
MODERN TECHNIQUES AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL SITES IN IRAQ

Saturday, December 8, 2012
9:30 am – 5:00 pm

Iraqi Cultural Center
1630 Connecticut Avenue
Washington, DC 20009

9:30-12:30 AM. Morning Session

Mohammad Alturaihi (Iraqi Cultural Center). Welcome.

McGuire Gibson (University of Chicago). Opening Remarks.

Mark Altaweel (University College London). “Landscape Studies in Northern Iraq”

Break. 15 minutes

Jason Ur (Harvard University). “Remote Sensing of Sites and Landscapes in the Kurdistan Region, Northern Iraq”

12:30-2:00. Lunch

2:00-5:00 PM. Afternoon Session

Elizabeth Stone (Stony Brook University) “High Resolution Satellite Imagery and the Archaeology of Southern Iraq”

Break. 15 minutes

Alexandra Witsell (University of Chicago). “Urban Form and the Crown: The Third-Millennium City of Khafajah”

Katharyn Hanson (University of Chicago). “Remote Sensing Assessments of Archaeological Sites in Iraq: Case Studies at Nineveh and Umma”

Conclusion: Discussion on Preserving the Cultural Heritage of Iraq